Subject: Request for extension of timelines due to COVID-19-reg.

Respected Sir,

We extend our heartfelt gratitude towards the Ministry of Corporate Affairs (MCA) for having extended various relaxations to the corporate and other stakeholders in the times of 2nd wave of COVID-19. As your goodself is aware, the impact of second wave of COVID-19 pandemic is widespread and the country is in the phase of recovery from the crisis, which may take some time as many of the States are still under partial lockdown or under certain strict restrictions. In the challenging times, stakeholders are putting best of their efforts to do the compliances and MCA also is extending all possible support to the corporates.

Considering that the Country is still under recovery phase and Corporates are finding it difficult to work with full capacity, we request your esteemed office to consider relaxations in due dates of the following, in line with various other relaxations extended by the MCA:

S.No.	Rule/Section/ Circular	Particulars	Suggestion
1	Companies Fresh Start Scheme, 2020 (CFSS 2020) issued vide MCA General Circular No. 12/2020 dated 30 th March 2020.	The Companies Fresh Start Scheme introduced on the 1st April, 2020, offered one-time opportunity to the defaulting companies to complete pending compliances by filing necessary documents in the MCA registry without being subject to a higher additional fees on account of any delay. The said scheme was extended till 31st December, 2020 vide MCA General Circular No. 30/2020 dated 28 th September 2020 . Clause 6(vii) of CFSS 2020 require filing of Form CFSS-2020 after closure of the Scheme and after the documents are taken on file, or on record or approved by the Designated Authority as the case may be but not after the expiry of six months from the date of closure of the Scheme.	The due date for filing of Form CFSS-2020 may be extended by 1 (one) month i.e. upto 31 st July, 2021.
