ICAI LEADS IN CAPACITY BUILDING OF PROFESSION THROUGH DIGITAL AUDIT TOOLS

The world stands at the brink of a technological revolution and the scale, scope, and complexity of the transformation will be unlike anything humankind has experienced before. Against this backdrop of technological transformation and digital disruption, accountancy profession should perceive it as an opportunity to add sustainable value. Effective implementation of new technologies is the future of the accountancy profession, elevating it to a more efficient and more insightful level. It is the concatenation of evolving technologies with professional skills and judgement thereby fructifying real value of the accountancy profession being unlocked in the digital era.

Automation of manual and routine tasks is taking place at an accelerated pace as standardisation of processes and cloud-based accounting systems has made data more easily available, easier to move between systems, easier to analyse, and also less susceptible to errors. Accounting profession should grasp the opportunity and strategically harness the technological disruptions, direct it towards a better future by collaborating closely with business and governments.

The Institute of Chartered Accountants of India (ICAI), towards its vision of technological empowerment of its members, has issued RFP for the following Digital Audit Tools and development of the same will start in due course:
